Notwithstanding anything stated herein, a transaction shall not constitute a Change in Control if its sole purpose is to change the state of the Company's formation, or to create a holding company that will be owned in substantially the same proportions by the persons who hold the Company's securities immediately before such transaction. For clarity, the term Change in Control as defined herein shall not include a stock sale transaction by the Company primarily for financing purposes.

C. Compensation upon Termination.

(i) Accrued Obligations. Upon termination of Executive's employment for any reason, the Company shall pay Executive (i) any unpaid Base Salary accrued through the date of termination, (ii) any amounts due to Executive under the terms of the Benefit Plans, and (iii) any unreimbursed expenses properly incurred prior to the date of termination (the "Accrued Obligations"). (i) Non-Solicitation. Executive agrees that during the Executive's employment during the Term and for a period of six (6) months following Executive's termination for any reason (the "Restricted Period"), other than in connection with Executive's duties under this Agreement, Executive has not, and shall not directly or indirectly, either as a principal, manager, agent, employee, consultant, officer, director, stockholder, partner, investor or lender or in any other capacity, and whether personally or through other persons:

(a) Solicit business from, attempt to conduct business with, or conduct business with any client, customer, or prospective client or customer of the Company (i) with whom the Company conducts or solicits business during Executive's employment, and (ii) in the post-termination Restricted Period, with whom the Company conducted or solicited business within the final twelve (12) months prior to Executive's termination, and who or which: (A) Executive contacted, called on, serviced, did business with, or had contact with during Executive's employment or that Executive attempted to contact, call on, service, or do business with during Executive's employment; or (B) that Executive became acquainted with or dealt with or had confidential information about, for any reason, as a result of Executive's employment. This restriction applies only to business that is in the scope of services or products provided by the Company; or

(b) Hire, solicit for employment or retention, induce or encourage to leave the employment of the Company, or otherwise cease their employment or other relationship with the Company, on behalf of itself or any other individual or entity, any employee, independent contractor or any former employee or independent contractor of the Company whose employment or contractor relationship ceased less than twelve (12) months earlier.

(ii) Non-Disparagement. During Executive's employment with the Company and any time thereafter, Executive shall not make, publish, or otherwise transmit any false, disparaging or defamatory statements, whether written or oral, regarding the Company and any of its employees, executives, agents, investors, procedures, investments, products, policies, or services. However, nothing in this Article IV, Section C(ii) shall prohibit: (1) Executive from testifying truthfully in response to a subpoena or participating in any governmental proceeding; or (2) Executive from raising internal concerns or by statements Executive makes in good faith in connection with performing Executive's duties and obligations to the Company.

D. No Interference. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, (i) Executive may disclose Confidential Information when required to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, by any governmental agency having authority over Executive or the business of the Company or by any administrative body or legislative body (including a committee thereof) with jurisdiction to order Executive to divulge, disclose or make accessible such information; and (ii) nothing in this Agreement is intended to interfere with Executive's right to: (a) report possible violations of state or federal law or regulation to any governmental or law enforcement agency or entity; (b) make other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of state or federal law or regulation; (c) file a claim or charge with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"), any state or local human rights commission, or any other governmental agency or entity; (d) testify, assist, or participate in an investigation, hearing, or proceeding conducted by the EEOC, any state or local human rights commission, any other governmental or law enforcement agency or entity, or any court; or (e) interfere with Executive's Section 7 rights under the National Labor Relations Act. For purposes of clarity, in making or initiating any such reports or disclosures or engaging in any of the conduct outlined in subsection (ii) above, Executive may disclose Confidential Information to the extent necessary to such governmental or law enforcement agency or entity or such court, need not seek prior authorization from the Company, and is not required to notify the Company of any such reports, disclosures or conduct.

E. Defend Trade Secrets Act. Executive is hereby notified in accordance with the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016 that Executive will not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or is made in a complaint or other document that is filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding. If Executive files a lawsuit for retaliation against the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, Executive may disclose the Company's trade secrets to Executive's attorney and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding if Executive files any document containing the trade secret under seal, and does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

F. Tolling. If Executive violates any of the restrictions contained in this Article IV, the Restricted Period shall be suspended and shall not run in favor of Executive from the time of the commencement of any violation until the time when Executive cures the violation to the satisfaction of the Company.

G. Remedies. Executive acknowledges that the restrictions contained in Article IV of this Agreement, in view of the nature of the Company's business and Executive's position with the Company, are reasonable and necessary to protect the Company's legitimate business interests and that any violation of Article IV of this Agreement would result in irreparable injury to the Company. In the event of a breach or threatened breach by the Executive of Article IV of this Agreement, the Company shall be entitled to a temporary restraining order and injunctive relief restraining Executive from the commission of any breach. Such remedies shall not be deemed the exclusive remedies for a breach or threatened breach of this Article IV but shall be in addition to all remedies available at law or in equity, including the recovery of damages from Executive, Executive's agents, any future employer of Executive, and any person that conspires or aids and abets Executive in a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement.

H. Reasonableness/Voluntariness. The Executive hereby represents to the Company that Executive has read and understands, and agrees to be bound by, the terms of this Article IV. Executive acknowledges that the scope and duration of the covenants contained in this Article IV are fair and reasonable in light of (i) the nature and wide geographic scope of the operations of the Company's business; (ii) Executive's level of control over and contact with the Company's business; and (iii) the amount of compensation, trade secrets and Confidential Information that Executive is receiving in connection with Executive's employment by the Company. The Executive has been advised to consult with counsel regarding and provided at least fourteen (14) days to consider this Agreement and the restrictive covenants contained herein ("Consideration Period"). If Executive executes this Agreement prior to the expiration of the Consideration Period, Executive agrees to voluntarily waive the remainder of the Consideration Period without impacting the enforceability of such provisions.

I. Reformation. If any of the aforesaid restrictions are found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unreasonable, or overly broad as to geographic area or time, or otherwise unenforceable, the Parties intend for the restrictions herein set forth to be modified by the court making such determination so as to be reasonable and enforceable and, as so modified, to be fully enforced. By agreeing to this contractual modification prospectively at this time, the Company and Executive intend to make this provision enforceable under the law or laws of all applicable jurisdictions so that the entire agreement not to compete and this Agreement as prospectively modified shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be rendered void or illegal.

J. No Previous Restrictive Agreements. Executive represents that, except as disclosed to the Company, including the provisions of any agreement to which Executive is subject describing any such restrictions, Executive is not bound by the terms of any agreement with any previous employer or other party that would prohibit Executive from performing Executive's duties with the Company, including with respect to confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation.

Executive further represents that Executive's performance of all the terms of this Agreement and Executive's work duties for the Company do not and will not breach any agreement to keep in confidence proprietary information, knowledge or data acquired by Executive in confidence or in trust prior to Executive's employment with the Company. Executive shall not disclose to the Company or induce the Company to use any confidential or proprietary information or material belonging to any previous employer or others.

ARTICLE V.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. Governing Law. The Parties agree that this Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Florida. In the event of any dispute regarding this Agreement, the Parties hereby irrevocably agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts situated in Tampa, Florida, and Executive agrees that Executive shall not challenge personal or subject matter jurisdiction in such courts. The Parties also hereby waive any right to trial by jury in connection with any litigation or disputes under or in connection with this Agreement.

B. Headings. The paragraph headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall in no way or manner be construed as a part of this Agreement.

C. Severability. In the event that any court of competent jurisdiction holds any provision in this Agreement to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the remaining provisions shall not be affected or invalidated and shall remain in full force and effect.

D. Reformation. In the event any court of competent jurisdiction holds any restriction in this Agreement to be unreasonable and/or unenforceable as written, the court may reform this Agreement to make it enforceable, and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect as reformed by the court.

E. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties, and fully supersedes any and all prior agreements, understanding or representations between the Parties pertaining to or concerning the subject matter of this Agreement, including, without limitation, Executive's employment with the Company. No oral statements or prior written material not specifically incorporated in this Agreement shall be of any force and effect, and no changes in or additions to this Agreement shall be recognized, unless incorporated in this Agreement by written amendment, such amendment to become effective on the date stipulated in it. Any amendment to this Agreement must be signed by all parties to this Agreement. Executive acknowledges and represents that in executing this Agreement, Executive did not rely, and has not relied, on any communications, promises, statements, inducements, or representation(s), oral or written, by the Company, except as expressly contained in this Agreement. The Parties represent that they relied on their own judgment in entering into this Agreement.

F. Waiver. No waiver of any breach of this Agreement shall be construed to be a waiver as to succeeding breaches. The failure of either of the Parties to insist in any one or more instances upon performance of any terms or conditions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of future performance of any such term, covenant or condition but the obligations of either of the Parties with respect thereto shall continue in full force and effect. The breach by one of the Parties to this Agreement shall not preclude equitable relief or the obligations of the other.

G. Modification. The provisions of this Agreement may be amended, modified or waived only with the prior written consent of the Company and Executive, and no course of conduct or failure or delay in enforcing the provisions of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such provisions or affect the validity, binding effect or enforceability of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

H. Assignment. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective heirs, successors and permitted assigns. Executive may not assign this Agreement to a third party. The Company may assign its rights, together with its obligations hereunder, to any affiliate and/or subsidiary of the Company or any successor thereto or any purchaser of substantially all of the assets of the Company.

I. Code Section 409A.

(i) To the extent (a) any payments to which Executive becomes entitled under this Agreement, or any agreement or plan referenced herein, in connection with Executive's termination of employment with the Company constitute deferred compensation subject to Section 409A of the Code; (b) Executive is deemed at the time of his separation from service to be a "specified employee" under Section 409A of the Code; and (c) at the time of Executive's separation from service the Company is publicly traded (as defined in Section 409A of Code), then such payments (other than any payments permitted by Section 409A of the Code to be paid within six (6) months of Executive's separation from service) shall not be made until the earlier of (x) the first day of the seventh month following Executive's separation from service or (y) the date of Executive's death following such separation from service. Upon the expiration of the applicable deferral period described in the immediately preceding sentence, any payments which would have otherwise been made during that period (whether in a single sum or in installments) in the absence of this Article V, Section I shall be paid to Executive in one lump sum, plus interest thereon at the Delayed Payment Interest Rate computed from the date on which each such delayed payment otherwise would have been made to Executive until the date of payment. For purposes of the foregoing, the "Delayed Payment Interest Rate" shall mean the national average annual rate of interest payable on jumbo six (6) month bank certificates of deposit, as quoted in the business section of the most recently published Sunday edition of The New York Times preceding Executive's separation from service.

(ii) To the extent any benefits provided under Article II, Sections B or F or Article III, Section C(ii) above are otherwise taxable to Executive, such benefits shall, for purposes of Section 409A of the Code, be provided as separate in-kind payments of those benefits, and the provision of in-kind benefits during one calendar year shall not affect the in-kind benefits to be provided in any other calendar year.

(iii) In the case of any amounts payable to Executive under this Agreement, or under any plan of the Company, that may be treated as payable in the form of "a series of installment payments,” as defined in Treas. Reg. §1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii), Executive’s right to receive such payments shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate payments for purposes of Treas. Reg. §1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii).

(iv) It is intended that this Agreement comply with or be exempt from the provisions of Section 409A of the Code and the Treasury Regulations and guidance of general applicability issued thereunder, and in furtherance of this intent, this Agreement shall be interpreted, operated, and administered in a manner consistent with such intent.
